

Share Phase 1 Value & Action Keywords

June 21, 2023

PLAN
Danville

Danville Values

A shared recognition to respect individual differences, support one another, embrace diversity, pursue growth and development, and foster a friendly and inclusive community.

The top value keywords participants used to craft their vision for Danville

Based on their word selection, Danville values a unique, supportive, diverse, growing, and friendly city in the future.

These top 5 values are defined in Danville to mean:

unique	supportive	diverse	growing	friendly
Celebrating the diversity of all cultures suggests an inclusive and welcoming environment that appreciates the richness and variety of different cultural backgrounds.	A commitment to improving conditions for all citizens, elevating and empowering all to grow personally, instilling confidence and a sense of self-worth, especially for individuals who require assistance.	Including and accommodating all people, regardless of their backgrounds, races, ethnicities, and other characteristics where everyone feels valued and accepted.	Encompasses the idea of progress, expansion, and improvement in various aspects of a community's life, including its economy, opportunities, and overall well-being.	A valuable quality that helps build positive relationships, foster a sense of unity and contribute to a happier and more harmonious society.

Danville in Action

The community prioritizes active participation, inclusivity, and collaboration, fostering an environment of growth, prosperity, and positive change for present and future generations.

Below are the top action keywords participants used to craft their vision for Danville.

Based on their word selection, Danville desires to evoke a community that is engaging, thriving, growing, improving, and encouraging.

These top 5 actions are defined in Danville to mean:

engage	thrive	grow	improve	encourage
Encompasses active participation, inclusivity, collaboration, dialogue, listening, growth, community-building, and the importance of involving everyone for success.	A community that fosters enjoyment, fulfillment, and well-being, creating a place where everyone can truly live, excel, and contribute.	Unlock the full potential of individuals, nurture thriving businesses, and provide ample housing and activities to embark on a journey towards a brighter future, where prosperity and fulfillment await.	An ongoing process of advancement and enhancement within the community with a commitment to address challenges, collaborate, and find solutions together.	Supporting individual potential, fostering positivity, promoting involvement, inspiring better citizenship, providing praise and motivation, and offering support to help individuals thrive.